

Yola's Café Presents:
An Afternoon Tea With
Pati Kachel, The Parable Fund

Listen to Pati Kachel, as she shares heartwarming tales while creatively incorporating an appreciation for music, literature, poetry and travel into her presentations.

Anne of Green Gables
Saturday, November 6, 2010
3:00 to 5:00 PM

An inspiring educational program about Lucy Maud Montgomery, the Canadian author of the charming Anne of Green Gables book series.

Dressed in vintage Victorian costume, Pati will invite you on a journey to Prince Edward Island. Enjoy the humor and wisdom of that unforgettable literary character, Ann Shirley.
(Ages 6 & older)

Cost: $15.00 ($20.00 for parent & child; each additional child is $5.00) Includes presentation and afternoon tea/scones, savories, and sweets.

Heart String and Aprons
Sunday, November 7, 2010
3:00 to 5:00 PM

Aprons represent people who have loved us and served us. Pati presents her colorful collection of vintage aprons and the enchanting stories of the people who wore them.

She lovingly honors the memory of all industrious "church basement" mothers with her good humor, poems, songs and tender tales.
(Age 14 and older)

Cost: $15.00
Includes presentation and afternoon tea/scones savories, and sweets.

